

I think some serious changes need to be made as to the programming of TV for children. The tv programming now has a very negative impact on kids in my opinion and I think tv programming should be more strict as to make it more appropriate for kids to view.